LOGISTICS SERVICE

We started our strategic services in the Sultanate of Oman where our Head Office is located and slowly spread our wings to the U.A.E., Egypt and China. Hence, it is just but proper for our company to be equipped with strong material handling and stocking facilities, an excellent warehouse set-up aptly wired on the ERP system to get additional infrastructural support. An effective and well-coordinated pre and post sales support distinguishes us from our competitors.

A professional Logistics Team to handle and deliver our products work hard to provide exceptional services to all our partners.

RMA and AFTER-SALES SERVICE

After-Sales service and technical support are the most important facets with these modern technologies. Our technical expertise plus strong products, services and partner relationship provides a solution that meets our clients' needs.

We assure a prompt response to all inquiries, followed by a timely and efficient installation and after-sales service, so that our company continues to grow in the security market place.

We believe that, as a team, we aspire for one goal and that is to make our territories, a more modern world to live in.
